REGISTRATION

Why do you need a library card?

- Borrowing
- Ordering from the closed stacks
- Interlibrary loan orders
- Use of the internet work stations

The library card is valid in all public libraries in Berlin which belong to the local library network (VOBB).

This library card is also valid in the "Senatsbibliothek Berlin", when proof that payment of the registration fee is presented.

What do you need to get a library card?

- Permanent residence in Germany
- Valid identity card or passport, proof of police registration or a residency permit valid for 3 months
- Valid proof of qualification for reduced fees (student identity card; proof of status as unemployed or social security recipient)
- Children between 7 and 16 need the approval and a liability statement from their legal guardian

COSTS

- Adults: for 12 months 10,00 €
 for 1 month 2,50 €
- Adults with reduced rates, students 5,00 €
- Children, pupils and those on social security: free

CIRCULATION

- A total of approximately 60 media (in the ZLB)
- Circulation: 28 calendar days (Videos and DVDs: 14 calendar days; Graphics, oil paintings, sculpture, potographs: 72 calendar days)

RENEWALS

Renewals can be made:

- within 13 days prior to date due
 - twice without presenting the media
1. on OPAC workstations (computer catalog) in the ZLB and all the other networked libraries in Berlin (free of charge)
 2. over the Internet at: <http://www.voebb.de> (free of charge)

RETURNS

All media borrowed within the Berlin network can be returned to either the ZLB or any of the other libraries in the network.

Please check the current costs for this service in the respective libraries. (Objects from the Artothek of the ZLB can only be returned in the Amerika-Gedenkbibliothek.)
